Kabir in Song

Traditional singers from Malwa, North India

Friday, September 26, 8:00 p.m., Shiley Theatre, Camino Hall
University of San Diego (Linda Vista Road)
General Admission $12; CWM members/seniors/students $8

A concert of bhajans (devotional songs) based on the mystical poems (dohas) of Kabir, the great 15th century Hindu-Sufi poet of India. Performed by a troupe of traditional Kabir musicians, singing in the regional folk style of Malwa as well as classical styles. Featured will be vocalists Prahlad Singh Tipanya and Krishna Kant Shukla. The songs will be introduced and explained by Dr. Linda Hess, professor of religious studies at Stanford University and author of The Bijak of Kabir.

"The great joy is to follow the route of Kabir upward to that union he so marvelously evokes." Robert Bly

"What you call 'salvation' belongs to the time before death. If you don't break your ropes while you're alive, do you think ghosts will do it after?" Kabir

Presented in cooperation with the USD Music Program. For further
