Center for World Music

The Center sponsors cultural tours and workshops in several areas of the world. This year, we will be coordinating a weeklong Summer Workshop in Bali, which will include a Collaborative Project between faculty and students of the Yong Siew Toh Conservatory of Music at the National University of Singapore, the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London, and the Center's cadre of native Sundanese and Balinese master teachers.

Summer Workshop in Bali (July 16–30, 2010)

The Bali Workshop, to be held at Flower Mountain in Payangan, will focus on the traditional music and dance from West Java (Sunda) and Bali, in particular on a variety of interesting ensembles such as gamelan jegog and gamelan selunding, among others.
